Father in heaven, who at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit: Grant that all who are baptized into his Name may keep the covenant they have made, and boldly confess him as Lord and Savior; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen

TEST Tidbits: A Poem of Connectedness and Peace

In a time when our society is undergoing a lot of stress and uncertainty, it is often helpful to try to get back to concepts of being fellow earthlings, made in the image of God and sustained by one earth. It is also good to be reminded of our power (both individually and collectively) to work for the peaceful and healthful stewardship of our beautiful blue dot in an immense universe. the Lent and Easter seasons. Read and reflect on each day's scripture and the meditation, then try the Moving Forward suggestion to go from reflection to action.

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK:

Many of you have asked: during this time of transition, this liminal period in the church, what can I do to help?

There are always opportunities to volunteer for various outreach ministries, worship assistants, and children's ministry helpers, but right now we have a particular need in certain areas of ministry.

We need office volunteers who can help answer phones, assemble worship leaflets, and do other light clerical work. While we normally have one person at the front desk, I would prefer to have more than one person around, just to make sure that no one is in the office alone at any time.

I am searching for an interim choir director to see us through the next couple of months until a more thorough search can be done for a permanent replacement.

Trinity is organizing a "Lay Weeders" group to help maintain the church garden spaces.

This is a far from complete list, and I will continue to communicate volunteer opportunities in the weeks to come. Thank you for your interest, and please contact me if you would like to help.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Rob

We also need assistants! People to cook casseroles that will serve 10-12, people to bring food of other types, and really importantly, people to join us in the kitchen (down the stairs on 10th Street, just off the alley between Vermont and Kentucky) at noon on that Tuesday.

The gold standard for casseroles is a hot casserole in an aluminum foil pan delivered at noon. If you can't make that arrangement, we are happy to have food left in the kitchen at Trinity on Sunday and we will swoop in a take it to LINK on Tuesday. Orea Kent shops for LINK on Monday; if you would prefer to have her pick up your donation, you can get cash or a check to her before then.

Orea Kent (badger@sunflower.com) and Catherine Hale Robins (cathcu90@gmail.com) are co-chairs for LINK; you may contact either of them to let them know what you are bringing or if you have questions.

Trinity Interfaith Food Pantry

The Trinity Interfaith Food Pantry (TIFP) was open seven days in November 2018 and served 226 families (including 191 children, 382 adults, 35 senior adults — also including 25 new households enrolled for food assistance in November). The total expense in November for food purchased locally and through Harvesters was $2,108.57, and the total retail equivalent value of all food provided (food that was donated and purchased for the 226 families) was $4,958.44.

TIFP received abundant donations of food in November from: Bishop Seabury Academy students, who brought food during their Heritage Day; the congregation at First United Methodist Church; and St. Margaret's Episcopal Church from their annual Pantry Power collection.

Volunteers who served with the Harvesters Mobile Food Distribution at First Baptist Church on Saturday, December 1, served families in 98 cars.

Thanks to everyone for the continuing donations of food and donations of money to TIFP, which provide food assistance to many in Lawrence and Douglas County.
